

Originally from Wilmington, Delaware, Kathryn began her dance training at the Anna Marie Dance Studio over twenty two years ago. While in high school she also studied at the Rock School of the Pennsylvania Ballet and the School of the Boston Ballet. Kathryn continued her dance training in the Ballet Dept at the University of Utah as well as as the Ballet West Conservatory. She has been able to perform with companies such as the Ballet West and the Russian Ballet Theatre. After attending the University of Utah, Kathryn moved to Los Angeles, California to join the Young Americans where she traveled and performed both nationally and internationally for several year. She has gone on to perform in many regional theater productions throughout the U.S., including Irving Berlin's "White Christmas," "Pippin," "Crazy for You," "Cinderella," and "Evita." Kathryn spent over three years with Disney Cruise Lines, onboard the Disney Magic as both a performer and Dance Captain for the company. Most recently, she spent eight months over in Japan dancing "One Man's Dream II" in Tokyo Disneyland.

Kathryn is very excited to be on staff since joining January of 2009.
