

Pam is the Piano and Voice teacher at Smitty's PAC. She has a BFA degree in Music History, Literature, Vocal Major/Piano Minor and has been teaching privately in Grand Island for seventeen years.

Pam grew up in Grand Island where her passion for music and theater were fostered and developed. Pam is blessed to work with the youth of Central Nebraska on both a one-on-one basis as well as directing several stage productions for children each year. Pam is also the director of LaCamerata Madrical Singers, and elite adult performing group. Pam and her husband have 4 daughters and 2 grandchildren.